  - a. County Fair Wrap Up – Lots of participation. Candidates felt there was a lighter turnout, however, the conversations with constituents was much better. Lots of good talks with people in the area.
  - b. State/National Event – Danny Wilkin is working on an event Saturday, September 27th. Maybe a hamburger fry at the park with Scott Tipton, Don Coram and local candidates. Looking at getting more state candidates as well. If you are interested in helping plan this event, contact Danny.
  - c. Republican Headquarters – Currently looking for space to hopefully open the end of September and run through the general election. If you know of a good location, contact Danny or any of the officers.

- VI. New Business
  - a. Financial Donations – Danny led a discussion on possibly donating money to republican candidates at the state level. Is this something we might want to do? If so, how much would we want to donate? Chuck Lurvey suggested we donate to J. Paul Brown's campaign as we might get the most bang for our buck helping him out. Karen Bohn wondered the costs for running a flier or ad in the paper supporting all the republican candidates. Nicci Crowley is to check costs for next meeting. Decided to table the discussion until the September meeting so more information could be gathered.
