- II. Approve Minutes – Scott Davis moved to approve the minutes. Greg Black seconded. Motion passed.

- III. Treasurer's Report - $4525.95 in checking, $100.54 in savings. Greg Black moved to approve the treasurer's report. Scott Davis seconded. Motion passed.

- IV. Bills to be paid – Danny Wilkin needed to be reimbursed $300 for room rental for Lincoln Day dinner and $210 for room rental for county assembly. Sherri Wright moved to pay Danny. Scott Davis seconded. Motion passed.

- V. Old Business
 - a. Golf Tournament and Lincoln Day Wrap Up – received: $2725 in ticket sales, $830 at the dessert auction, $560 at the silent auction and $1400 in hole sponsors for golf. Expenses: $106 for golf, $1385 for food and $300 for Elks Club rental. Great event. 68 people at dinner and 5 teams played golf.
 - b. Yard Sale Wrap Up – On hold until there is more time to organize.
 - c. Primary Election Wrap Up – Danny congratulated the winners and thanked the opponents for their willingness to represent Montezuma County. He thanked the candidates for well run, respectable races. We need to continue our support of Republican candidates as there are some independent and write in candidates for some of the local races.

- VI. New Business
 - a. County Fair - $50/booth, July 30-August 2. Greg Black moved to have a booth at the fair. Sherri Wright seconded. Motion passed. Volunteers will be needed to help man the booth.
 - b. State & National Forum in September – Danny is looking at putting together an event to bring state and national candidates to our area. Working with the different candidates staffs to find a date. To help, contact Danny.
 - c. Cory Gardner was to be in Montrose July 5th.
 - d. August 2nd was Montrose's Lincoln Day dinner
